February/March 2015

2014 KLEYC Cadets.

Law enforcement is in the news quite often of late. Sometimes, the police are either not portrayed in a positive light - or have in fact made a mistake. Either way, this reinforces the importance of attracting the best and brightest into the profession. The work is demanding, yet critical to ensure a safe and prosperous democracy. Kiwanis has been and continues to be a leader in the development of young people to include the long standing support of the youth law enforcement career camp.

Now is the time to apply for the 2015 Kiwanis Law Enforcement Youth Camp! Our camp is schedule for JULY 19-25, 2015. Word of mouth is the best recruiting tool! If you know of a high school junior or senior that you think might enjoy the camp,
1) TELL THEM ABOUT IT! and

3) Help them navigate the website and submit their application – www.wsp.wa.gov OUTREACH tab on the top right, then KIWANIS YOUTH LAW CAMP selection on the far left of your computer screen.

WSP IS HIRING NOW!

WSP Cadet Testing Unit is Now Accepting Online Applications. Effective September 1, 2013, the WSP no longer accepts paper applications. The WSP Cadet Testing Unit will be transitioning to online applications using NEOGOV at careers.wa.gov.

All applicants are subject to personal background evaluations, including a polygraph examination, because of the nature of the work and security requirements.

Here you can find information about the standards for all civilian and commissioned career opportunities that exist within the Washington State Patrol. Some requirements are:

Have no tattoos, body art, branding, or voluntary disfigurement that is visible while on duty. Visible areas include lower portion of the upper arms, elbows, the entire forearms, hands, neck and facial areas. Body modifications and body art listed above shall either be removed or covered completely and opaquely while in a short sleeve uniform

Drug possession/usage beyond some standards disqualifies you for employment with the Washington State Patrol.

"Possession" is defined as having actual physical control of any illegal (non-prescribed) drug for personal use or otherwise.

"Use" is defined as: trying, testing, or experimenting, which includes, but is not limited to tasting, smoking, injecting, absorbing, sniffing, or inhaling.

If required by the position description, the applicant must possess a current, non-probationary, and non-restricted valid driver's license.

Have no felony convictions.

No DUI's regardless of time frame and age. Which will also include reduced charges.
